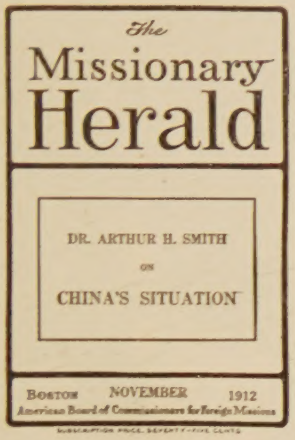
TWO CLUBBING OFFERS

TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS ONLY

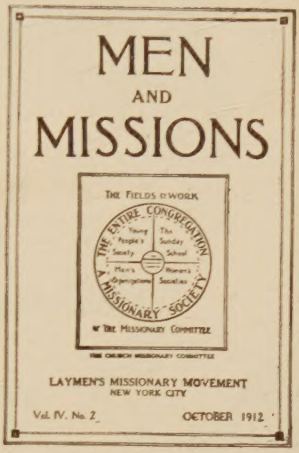


I

The Missionary Herald

and

Men and Missions



The wide-awake monthly illustrated magazines of the American Board and the Laymen's Missionary Movement, costing $1.25 separately, both to one address for 75 cents

This offer will appeal to the Men in the church.

II

The Missionary Herald

and

The International Review of Missions

The Quarterly Review issued by the Continuation Committee of the World's Missionary Conference, Edinburgh, 1910

The news of the American Board's work and workers combined with a scientific treatment of world-wide mission principles, problems, and achievements. Both magazines for the price of one: $2.00 + $0.75 for $2.00

This offer will appeal to the more thoughtful students of missions.

Send address with remittance, according to either offer, to

WHEN THE GOD RIDES FORTH

A horse kept in the inclosure of a Hindu temple between Madura and Kochadi village for the god to ride out upon for pleasure. The attendant gods are to protect the chief and to frighten off evil spirits
